SUMMARY OF SKILLS

A current graphic and interactive design student at HACC, looking for opportunities to gain more experiences. A little bit about me: I love storytelling, especially through design. Whether it's two simple shapes coming together to create something meaningful, or a brand identity that tells a story of an organization down to its root. This is my passion and what drives me to be someone who thrives in challenging environments. I create, problem-solve, and adapt to consistently delivers innovative designs.
